Report description:

Due to the pandemic, the Financial Supervisory Commission (FSC) have coordinated with banks regarding the postponement of mortgage, auto lending and credit card payments. The original agreement was to postpone the start of repayments until the end of June 2022. However, due to the outbreak of COVID-19 in April 2022, the FSC announced that the deadline will be extended again to June 2023 for a one-year extension. During the postponement, customers can apply to the bank for a 3-6 month extension o...
