Report description:

In 2022, cooking ingredients and meals will continue to witness strong price hikes due to the rapidly growing cost of raw materials. As a result, many consumers, especially lower-income households, are cutting back on their expenditure and switching to lower-priced products where possible. However, some categories are benefiting from the increasing home cooking and baking trends, with many consumers limiting how much they dine out due to the rising cost of living. Moreover, traditional grocery r...
