Report description:

Moderate retail volume growth was recorded in cooking ingredients and meals in Serbia during 2022 as the recovery of the country's consumer foodservice industry and the rising cost of living put strong pressure on demand. Serbians are known for dining out very often and thus the complete lifting of social distancing restrictions imposed to curb the spread of the COVID-19 virus at the peak of the pandemic led to significant pressure coming on retail sales of cooking ingredients and meals as consu...
