Report description:

During the COVID-19 crisis, people stocked up on essentials, including Thai cuisine's primary cooking materials such as palm oil, soybean oil, fish sauce, soy sauce, and oyster sauce. This led to an increase in the retail volume sales of these product groups. As the threat from COVID-19 has waned and lifestyles have returned to normal in 2022, the demand for the aforementioned products has decreased, as some consumers have shifted to foodservice and others have returned to their traditional pref...
