Report description:

In 2022, retail consumption of cooking ingredients and meals in the Czech Republic has only partially stabilised. With rapidly rising inflation and Czech households facing growing expenses on fuel, energy bills, and food and beverages, many consumers are striving to limit their spending, especially on non-essential items. This includes restricting spending on foodservice, leading to Czech people preparing more meals at home again. This is supporting retail demand for edible oils, pasta sauces, c...
