Report description:

In 2021, the country suffered a low harvest of rapeseed and sunflower seeds. This is partly because of the declining cultivation area to grow such crops, but also because of the poor weather conditions and pests harming the production. Given that less rapeseed oil and sunflower oil was produced whilst demand is growing across Europe, retailers raised the prices. This problem has been exacerbated further in 2022 as the global supply chain for edible oils has been heavily disrupted by the war in U...
