Report description:

Cheese witnessed a slight decline in volume growth in 2022 amid a surge in average prices, which has helped push current value sales into double-digit growth. At the same time, there was a gradual recovery in foodservice demand as COVID-19 restrictions were removed. Cheese benefitted from the event of the pandemic in 2020, as sales swiftly moved from foodservice to retail during the time of horeca closures and lockdowns. Consumers began cooking at home more often, alongside seeing a higher number...
