Report description:

Cooking ingredients and meals in North Macedonia continues to record growth in 2022. Retail sales were unaffected by COVID-19 thanks to stable consumer demand, unlike foodservice sales which declined during the pandemic but managed to recover in 2021 and 2022. Most cooking ingredients and meals ranges are seeing moderate volume growth which, due to rising prices and inflation, resulted in strong retail value growth.

Euromonitor International's Cooking Ingredients and Meals in North Macedonia report offers in-depth knowledge of the market at a national level, providing local insight and understanding unavailable elsewhere. In addition to the latest retail sales data 2017-2021, it identifies the leading companies, brands and retail outlets, and assesses the key trends and demographic shifts behind consumer demand and sales growth. How key trends such as health and wellness, sustainability and recovery from the pandemic are shaping the market in <|Year|> directly informs our forecasts to 2026, clearly indicating how the market is expected to change.
