Report description:

The cooking ingredients and meals market in the Philippines is set to see slightly slower retail volume growth in 2022 than in the previous year. In 2021, the market stabilised following the spike in demand resulting from the shift to homebound lifestyles at the height of the COVID-19 crisis in 2020. With lifestyles returning to normal and COVID-19 cases appearing to be under control in 2022, some meal occasions have returned to foodservice channels, dampening demand for cooking ingredients and...
