Report description:

As with the other main staple foods categories in Algeria, overall retail volume sales growth for processed fruit and vegetables in 2022 is set to be down on 2021. Retail demand has slowed partly because consumers are cooking at home less often as more people return to the office and resume their normal routines thanks to improvements in the epidemiological situation and the ending of most restrictions previously imposed to curb transmission of COVID-19. The downturn is also attributable to soar...
