Report description:

As most sweet spreads are imported, the retail volume sales performance suffered due to weak consumer spending power and the depreciation of local currency, which impacted import supplies and costs and led to high unit prices. Sweet spreads have not achieved essential status in Nigeria and remained quite niche up to 2022. However, demand did grow strongly prior to 2020, as more consumers used sweet spreads as novel complements for bread. Nonetheless, as Nigerians focused their spending on essent...
