Report description:

Overall sales of sweet spreads remained low during 2022, although there is some demand for jams and preserves among the population. Every year, Uzbekistan enjoys a huge harvest of berries and fruits and this means that there is a long tradition of preparing jams and preserves at the end of every summer. However, low purchasing power means that sales of industrially manufactured jams and preserves in packaged format remain very limited, with the vast majority of consumers referring to make their...
