Report description:

The impact of the pandemic and subsequent restrictions in 2020 and into 2021 significantly impacted travel opportunities. From limitations on gatherings, to shops closed for months, and events of all kinds being completely cancelled until further notice, many consumers from discouraged from booking a holiday. Germany is both a major outbound tourism source and a host for incoming tourists from around the world, but especially Europe and its neighbouring countries, so the social and economic impa...
