Report description:

Bags and luggage is being significantly affected by Romania's economic situation in 2022. Rising inflation, higher transportation costs and gas prices combined with a weak exchange rate has significantly influenced average prices in this category. According to a trade interview with Lamonza, some products have seen prices rise by up to 60% in 2022. Such price rises have contributed to the double-digit growth in current value sales, pushing the category well above pre-pandemic sales levels, alth...
