Report description:

In 2022, packaged flat bread witnessed the strongest value growth as consumers sought out products with a view to healthier eating and achieving a slimmer figure. Estonians sought to consume lower-fat foods so as not to gain excess weight with more consumers opting for packaged flat bread, which is perceived by many as a lower calorie option of an essential food item. During the COVID-19 pandemic many consumers had been opting for packaged food and packaged flat bread as a safer option, potentia...
