Report description:

Having been hammered by pandemic restrictions in 2020, retail constant value sales (2020 prices) of jewellery continued to recover during 2021, albeit at a much more sluggish pace than in the previous year. 2021 had seen a significant recovery in demand, even though such events as weddings, first communions and baptisms remained very scarce during the first half of the year. As these events were taking place normally again in 2022, with most COVID-19 restrictions removed, this had a positive eff...
