Report description:

While personal accessories are expected to register high double-digit current value growth, constant value growth is expected to be much more moderate. The reason for such high current value growth is that Turkey has one of the highest inflation rates in the world in 2022, with fears it could even reach triple digits, as it already has for products such as jewellery. Also, unlike most other countries, this soaring inflation had already been triggered prior to the energy crisis arising from the w...
