Report description:

Rice, pasta and noodles saw positive development in current value terms in 2022 although retail volume sales have been curbed by higher unit prices and the end of lockdown restrictions. Pasta is one of the most popular meals in Croatia (especially the western side of the country which is close to Italy), partly because pasta is a convenient food to prepare. With Croatians returning to workplaces again, dried pasta has become one of the most common meals among the younger working population. It i...
