Report description:

The staple foods category is witnessing marginal retail volume growth in 2022, whilst rising prices caused by inflation is driving strong current value growth. Meanwhile, foodservice volumes continue to rebound from the pandemic with full sales recovery expected to occur in 2024. On balance, however, this is the one of the best annual performances of the staple food category in this review period.

Euromonitor International's Staple Foods in Bosnia and Herzegovina report offers in-depth knowledge of the market at a national level, providing local insight and understanding unavailable elsewhere. In addition to the latest retail sales data 2017-2021, it identifies the leading companies, brands and retail outlets, and assesses the key trends and demographic shifts behind consumer demand and sales growth. How key trends such as health and wellness, sustainability and recovery from the pandemic are shaping the market in <|Year|> directly informs our forecasts to 2026, clearly indicating how the market is expected to change.
