Report description:

Chocolate confectionery is rebounding to greater strength in 2022, following the declines seen in 2020 during the era of the COVID-19 pandemic restrictions and the slow start to recovery in 2021. These stronger sales are thanks to the return of the tourism trade following the reopening of borders and lifting of travel restrictions, in addition to festive celebrations with family and friends being allowed again.

Euromonitor International's Chocolate Confectionery in Switzerland report offers in-depth knowledge of the market at a national level, providing local insight and understanding unavailable elsewhere.
