Report description:

Cameroon has not been as affected by the energy crisis stemming from the war in Ukraine, as rising global energy prices in 2022 are giving a boost to government coffers and helping stabilise the economy. However, ongoing civil conflict is restraining economic growth. All the same, overall inflation is modest, and with hot drinks, there is expected to both healthy current value growth, but more modest volume growth. Foodservice is expected to register higher volume growth than retail, as society...
