Report description:

Both fine and costume jewellery saw significant growth in 2021, fuelled by the return to pre-pandemic spending patterns, coupled with the higher disposable incomes of British consumers after a year of lockdowns and restrictions. In the summer of 2021, COVID-19-related restrictions were fully lifted in the UK. With stores reopening and social interactions on the rise, some consumers were eager to return to the high street and spend money on themselves and their loved ones, which led to significan...
