Report description:

Other plant-based hot drinks, specifically the national drink yerba mate, dominates other hot drinks, being a staple product in most Argentinian households. Argentina is seeing high inflation in 2022, and in response, at the beginning of the year, the government re-introduced the "Precios Maximos" price control program. The program impacts more than 400 food and beverage products, keeping the prices of these staple items below inflation. Yerba mate is included in the program. As such, yerba mate...
