Report description:

The new standard NOM 051 labelling regulation came into force on 1 October 2020. This new regulation has continued to impact labelling on all packaged food and non-alcoholic drinks in Mexico. The main objective of this standardised labelling is to provide the final consumer with commercial and health-related information on the content of nutrients and ingredients, especially those that represent a risk for the health of the consumer. The new labelling standard states that a black seal must be ad...
