Report description:

In 2022, chilled meat and seafood substitutes demonstrated the fastest value growth in alignment with the growing number of vegetarians in Estonia. However, unit prices of meat substitutes have increased in line with inflation and rising production costs, which has dampened retail volume growth in 2022. Growing consumer concerns about animal welfare and environmental issues is causing a shift towards veganism and vegetarianism in Estonia. Processed seafood, on the other hand, has become a more p...
