Report description:

Retail volume sales of sports drinks are experiencing another year of growth in 2022 following a rebound in 2021, with predictions for a full recovery to pre-pandemic levels. The recovery is being driven by increasing outdoor activities as the majority of professional and amateur sport leagues have resumed in 2022. With social distancing restrictions relaxing in April, compulsory outdoor mask wearing was also lifted, which removed both physical and psychological barriers to participating in outd...
