Report description:

Baked goods is set to record strong current value growth in Slovakia in 2022, partly as a result of steeply rising commodity prices of grain, yeast and sugar in 2022, which has resulted in average unit price hikes. Retail volume sales of bread, which is a staple product, have not been significantly affected by the rising prices; however, other subcategories, such as pastries and cakes, are expected to record retail volume declines as consumers tighten their belts. Post-pandemic foodservice recov...
