Report description:

Sales of baked goods remained relatively resilient in 2022 despite the high unit price inflation that was seen in the category during the year. The main reason that sales of bread stood firm in the face of pressure due to rising unit prices is that bread is a socially important product in Uzbekistan and its status as the primary source of starchy carbohydrates in most households means that bread is considered to be the key category of staple foods. While some households still make their own brea...
