Report description:

In 2022, breakfast cereals as a whole continued growing in volume terms despite the end of the pandemic and people returning to the office. The overall expansion of volume sales is being driven by higher consumption of muesli and granola among younger adults, a habit that developed during the pandemic. The global health and wellness trend is clearly evident in Uruguay, with many consumers looking to eat more healthily, and breakfast is no exception. Muesli and granola are mainly available in mod...
