Report description:

In 2022, only commercial charge cards are available in Hungary, with personal charge cards no longer available. Moreover, commercial charge cards are only offered to top corporate executives and senior managers and there are no indications that this situation will change. The last personal charge products in Hungary were withdrawn from circulation during 2012 and it is considered very unlikely that they will be reintroduced within the foreseeable future. Furthermore, the transaction value and vo...
