Report description:

Charge cards is a highly niche financial cards and payments category in Thailand, with the category recording the lowest number of transactions in the entire industry. This number has continued to decline through the pandemic and will continue to drop in 2022 as consumers limit their usage of such cards. However, the transaction value began its recovery last year and will continue to grow in 2022. This demonstrates that although consumers are using such cards less, they are using them to make la...
