Report description:

Charge cards will continue to see a limited recovery in 2022 due to business activities remaining lower than pre-pandemic. The most common type of charge card in the Czech Republic is commercial fleet cards. Given the interruptions to commercial activities during the pandemic, there was strongly reduced spending on business travel, including fleet travel, across the last couple of years. In addition, many companies sought to reduce the size of their vehicle fleets under the impact of the subsequ...
