Report description:

2022 has seen consumer spending continue to return, following lulls in retail, entertainment and travel spending during the COVID-19 pandemic in 2020. This return of consumer spending has fuelled the return of charge card spending, especially amongst high-income consumers, who are returning to travel and leisure. Travel is a large driver of charge card spending, as American Express continues to offer substantial travel rewards and access to airport lounges. The return of business travel is also...
