Report description:

The credit cards category is seeing improvement. It saw particularly notable developments in the first half of 2022 due to a number of factors, including the fact that the population's mobility has recovered, especially in the larger cities. Many credit cards players also use bonuses and points for shopping, ranging across supermarkets, shopping centres, cafes, and restaurants. Another factor was economic recovery. Household consumption also began to creep up, although there are still concerns a...
