Report description:

Debit cards are the leading payment method in the Netherlands, which are used for the vast majority of offline payments. Indeed, paying by card tends to be synonymous with paying by debit card. During the COVID-19 pandemic, consumers were encouraged to pay by card for everyday products and this non-cash culture has persisted in 2022 with people opting to use cards in shops, when eating out and at events. The rise of debit card payments is nurturing the country towards becoming a largely cash-free...
