Report description:

Debit cards in the Philippines have largely been known and treated as ATM cards only - prior to the outbreak of COVID-19 the use of debit cards was primarily for making cash withdrawals. This was because most people were either unaware that they can use their debit card to make cashless transactions or were afraid to use them because of security concerns. However, the COVID-19 pandemic has raised consumer awareness, pushing use of debit cards for direct, cashless transactions too, driven by the...
