Report description:

Financial cards and payments in Canada is expected to record an improved performance in 2022 as the country continues to recover from the COVID-19 pandemic. However, the growth in the number of volume and current value transactions is set to be lower than previous estimations made in 2021. This is due to a combination of different factors that have affected consumer confidence and behaviour, such as the Russian invasion of Ukraine, high inflation and a crash in the stock market. The use of direc...
