Report description:

Sales of hot drinks in Vietnam registered a downturn in demand during the height of the COVID-19 crisis in 2020 and 2021. This was mainly due to a significant declines in foodservice sales, as pandemic-related restrictions forced the closure of all on-trade channels. Another major factor placing pressure on the on-trade channel, even after its reopening, was a dramatic decline in inbound tourism flows. This was due to Vietnam's borders being closed to foreign visitors for an extended period, as...
