Report description:

It is very common for people in Uzbekistan to eat meat every day and meat consumption is considered to be a cornerstone of good nutrition in virtually all households. Various different types of meat are widely used as an ingredient when preparing a diverse range of dishes as well as often being the focal point of meals by forming the basis of the main course. Nonetheless, the vast majority of meat in the country is purchased as fresh meat in open markets, with demand for processed meat considera...
