Report description:

Staple foods in Slovakia in 2022 has been significantly impacted by macroeconomic developments, such as increases in the price of commodities and skyrocketing production and logistics costs, which has led to steep average unit price - and therefore value sales - growth in current terms. In addition, the conflict in neighbouring Ukraine has impacted supply chains. Retail sales have been bolstered by stockpiling, as consumers anticipated retail price hikes; however, thriftier shopping behaviour am...
