Report description:

There were no store cards operating in Indonesia at the end of the review period, and there are currently no expectations of any such financial cards entering the market over the forecast period. It is expected that Indonesians will prefer to use regular financial cards such as credit or debit cards, or even financial institutions that offer credit digitally, such as Kredivo. Due to the limitations of store cards, it seems unlikely that there will be any significant demand for these products dur...
