Report description:

Sugar confectionery is still recovering from the impacts seen in 2020, when the height of the pandemic restrictions led to lower purchases overall, due to fewer social occasions such as children's parties, alongside a lack of impulse purchases due to shop closures, home seclusion, and working from home diktats. Most sub-categories are now seeing a return to positive growth as children parties and gatherings resume, along with more social mobility which stimulates impulse purchases. However, inno...
