Report description:

Retail volume sales of air treatment products see ongoing positive growth in 2022 as Romanians continue to spend a considerable amount of their time at home. For this reason, the need for greater comfort inside the home remains at elevated levels during 2022. In particular, the fact that many of Romania's white-collar professionals, office workers and service industry personnel continue to work from home for at least part of the time has made it more important for them to heat their homes adequa...
