Report description:

Air treatment products continued to register robust sales growth during 2022 as the population of the Czech Republic continued to turn to air purifiers at a time of enhanced interest in maintaining the highest possible standards of hygiene in the home. While this trend has mainly benefited air purifiers, it has also pushed demand for dehumidifiers and humidifiers to some extent, revitalizing demand in categories which have been rather overlooked by the population of the Czech Republic for many y...
