Report description:

Although disposable incomes have declined in Greece in 2022 amidst high inflation and hikes in energy and petrol prices, coffee remains a daily commodity for most Greeks and a product in which most consumer prioritise quality over price. As such, the category will see stable volume sales and strong increases in retail value sales. Given that consumers have become more demanding of quality when it comes to coffee, the focus on category players is largely on products of a premium positioning. As S...
