Report description:

Concentrates is a small and relatively mature category in Thailand, with sales limited to the off-trade channel. Even before the onset of the pandemic, off-trade volume sales had been in decline due to the deepening interest of local consumers in health and wellness, a trend that was exacerbated by the introduction of Thailand's sugar tax in October 2019. Indeed, the impact of the sugar tax was felt more heavily in concentrates than in many other categories, as sugary offerings dominate sales in...
