Report description:

Consumer lending is being driven by increasing consumer expenditure in 2022 in line with an easing of pandemic-related restrictions in Austria. This is resulting in the greater resumption of socialising, and the return to previous shopping and travel habits. On the other hand, the war in Ukraine is leading to high inflation and strong price increases, especially for essentials such as energy and groceries. This is forcing many Austrians to make more careful purchasing decisions, or postpone dema...
