Report description:

Global supply shortages as a result of the ongoing war in Ukraine is leading to price rises for a number of cooking ingredients such as edible oils, which is placing pressure on an import-reliant market such as Singapore. In response, local consumers are starting to reduce their purchase volumes amid growing prices across all categories, except for sauces, dips, and condiments. Retail demand for the latter is being driven by the convenience offered by recipe sauces for consumers who continue to...
