Report description:

The number of debit cards continues to rise in India in 2022, with this financial card remaining the most popular format. Nevertheless, volume growth is slower compared to the previous two years when the pandemic heightened safety and hygiene fears and consumers were more cautious about handling cash with the virus still in circulation. The number of contactless smart cards in circulation has also witnessed another huge leap in share in 2022, as consumers, initially cautious about contact in sto...
