Report description:

Retail volume sales decreased during 2022 following Coronavirus (COVID-19)-induced highs in demand. The COVID-19 pandemic brought forward the demand for dishwashers, as households prioritised spending on the home in light of lockdown and other measures aimed at stemming the spread of the virus in the country. Consequently, the drop in retail volume sales at the end of the review period reflects a post-COVID-19 environment and the return to normality in society. As the country emerged out of the...
